CATHOLICS AND THE LAW

There are not a few Catholics who feel that if they just keep the Commandments they are good Catholics. They often like to ask, ‘Is this a sin?,’ that is, is it against the law? Is it a mortal sin or is it a venial sin? If it is ‘only’ a venial sin, then I can do it. But true Christians do not ask whether something is legal or illegal. They love God, they love Jesus, they love their brothers and sisters. Their only concern is how they can serve and love them more and more. They want to work with Jesus and with his brothers and sisters to build the Kingdom of God. No matter how much they do, they know they can still love more and do more and be more. It is not then a question of law; it is not a question of what I have to do. It is a question of how much more I can do, how much more I want to do. The requirements of the law are way behind.

World Day of Prayer - 2014

Mother of Good Counsel Church

Innisfail

The theme for the World Day of Prayer 2014 is “Streams in the Desert,” developed by Christian women in Egypt at the time of the turmoil of the movement for political change. Like streams in the desert, news of religious leaders standing up for peace reflects the deepest source of our faith.

This year our Parish is hosting the Day of Prayer on Friday March 7th at 9.30am. An invitation is extended to parishioners to be involved in the Liturgy and the Hospitality afterwards in the Parish Centre. All women of the parish are asked to please bring a plate to share.

For more information please contact Teresa Stewart 0438 194 109.

Parish Pastoral Council

Responsibilities of Members

In a spirit of prayerfulness each member of the Parish Pastoral Council will:

- Attend regular meeting of the Parish Pastoral Council.
- Provide input into deliberations of the Parish Pastoral Council.
- Develop a spirit of enquiry and the ability to listen and understand the issues affecting the lives of parishioners.
- Commitment to keep one-self informed of current Church issues.
- Provide prayerful support and encouragement for other members of the Parish Pastoral Council.

Parishioners are now invited to nominate themselves or another parishioner for membership of the Council. Formation sessions will be provided for those nominated. Information Booklets and Nomination Forms are available from the Parish Centre and will be available at all Masses.

Election of 7 members to the Council will take place in March.

Lenten Groups 2014 - “You Have Set Us Free”

The Gospels for Lent in 2014 engage our minds and our hearts with vivid stories: the Samaritan woman at the well; the man Jesus cures of blindness and the Pharisees who refuse to ‘see’; Martha by the tomb of Lazarus.

“For each of us Lent reminds us that through Jesus' life, death and resurrection we have been set free from the chains of death - in all its forms. At our own baptism we were claimed by Christ as beloved daughters and sons of God. Baptism is the first sacrament and sets us free to be on mission spreading God's reign of peace, reconciliation, joy, care, compassion and justice throughout our world.”

If anyone is interested in leading or being a part of a Lenten Group please register your name and contact phone number with the Parish Office 40616633 as soon as possible.

Australian Catholics Magazine

The Summer 2014 edition of Australian Catholics is now available.

“In the Church with Pope Francis”

“Everyone knows that Pope Francis is different. When he was elected no one would have expected the new Pope to go back to the guest house with the other Cardinals in a bus or to celebrate Holy Thursday at the Juvenile Gaol, let alone wash the feet of young men and women, Muslim and Christian, with tattoos and without. Nor would anyone have expected him to ring up people out of the blue and to give long interviews to newspapers.”

(Words—Fr Andrew Hamilton SJ)

- What has struck you most about Pope Francis?
- What are the things that help or stop us from reaching out to others?
Baptisms
This weekend we welcome into our faith community Harper Pierantozzi.

Father Hayes Birthday Celebration
On Sunday 23rd February, following 9am Mass, all are invited to join with Fr Peter Hayes, in the Parish Centre, to celebrate the occasion of his “80th Birthday”. This is a great opportunity for the Innisfail Parish to celebrate with Fr Peter and to show our appreciation to Father for the wonderful contribution he made to this parish in the many years of his service here. Please bring a plate to share. Any inquiries contact Margaret Todd on 4063 3734.

Become a State School Religious Education Teacher or Helper in 2014
“The Kingdom of heaven is like a mustard seed …”
Matthew 13:31-32.

State School Religious Education is a valuable ministry. As the school year has now commenced we are now asking for volunteers to assist with this ministry. Please ask yourself if this is a ministry you could be part of. Resource material is provided and assistance is available if required.

Please consider giving 1 hour each week to teach Religious Education in the State Schools. No teaching skills are required. If you can assist please contact the Parish Office on 4061 6633.

Catholic Leader—in this issue:
- Townsville celebrates first ordination since 2006.
- Catholic Mission to host forum on the impact of Pope Francis.
- Family group warns about resumption of battle over definition of marriage.

The Adult Catholic

“I am with you always, to the end of the age” (Mt 28:20). This promise of Christ never ceases to resound in the Church as the secret of her life and the wellspring of her hope. As the day of Resurrection, Sunday is not only a remembrance of a past event: it is a celebration of the presence of the Risen Lord in the midst of his own people. We are saved not as individuals but as members of Christ’s Mystical Body and are called by the Risen Lord to encounter Him each Sunday in the Eucharistic assembly.
