YOU ARE THE CHRIST .....

THE SON OF MAN WAS DESTINED TO SUFFER MUCH.

In today's Gospel we find Jesus still in foreign territory. He had moved north to the region of Caesarea Philippi, the city then recently constructed by Philip the Tetrarch, son of Herod the Great. He had named his new city in craven tribute to the Roman Caesar and appended his own name to it lest it be confused with that much more significant Caesarea on the Mediterranean seashore. Philip had sited his Caesarea beneath the towering escarpment now known as the Golan Heights. Nothing remains of it today. There Jesus obtained the definitive acknowledgement from the Apostles, through the mouth of Peter, that he was indeed the Christ, the one promised so long ago, firstly in the time of Abraham, vaguely as a blessing and then progressively defined as the Messiah, the Saviour especially consecrated to God, by Patriarch and Prophet—none more explicitly than by the Prophet Isaiah.

Isaiah intimated that the Messiah would be rejected and would suffer grievously at the hands of those he would save. And it is this aspect of his mission that Jesus seized upon. His reference to the need for his disciples to take up the Cross and follow him indicated that it was crucifixion he was talking about. Peter was horrified, as well he might be. But he had missed the point. It was ordained that the Christ must suffer and so enter his glory and we must be prepared to follow him, as did Mary his Mother whose seven sorrows we have just commemorated immediately after we had exalted the Holy Cross.

The Pastor's Pen

Sir Michael Parkinson was interviewed on Compass (the Religious Program) last Sunday evening, the topic The Meaning of Life. Early in the interview mention was made of 'Mary' she was spoken of in glowing terms, at first I thought it was in reference to 'Mary' the Mother of Jesus but in fact it was his wife 'Mary' of 50 plus years, Irish - born committed and a practicing Catholic.

Sir Michael's religious formation was in the Church of England, these days he does not hold to any form of worship and doubts greatly the major tenants of the Christian Faith, while interestingly he admires Mary, his wife for her beliefs and practices and is conscious of the many ways his family has been blessed over the years. He unquestionably gives Mary full credit for being his rock and a sense of direction throughout his high profile life in the Media; a life that saw him interviewing and mixing with Celebrities while engaging in excessive drinking and late nights. The turning point came when Mary told Michael at the height of a drinking binge "that he looked ugly" from there he curtailed his excesses.

The Parkinson's have three sons, now grown up who live in close proximity to their parents, it is his family and the strong faith conviction that Mary has, that Sir Michael admits is the nucleolus of his life. He admits, "I wish I had the faith conviction that Mary has."

Ordination of Deacon Nathan McKay

The Parish is considering hiring a Bus to take people interested in attending the Ordination of Deacon Nathan McKay at St Monica's Cathedral on Friday 18th September 2015. In line with the principles of good stewardship, the insert in this week's Bulletin provides an itemised account of Revenue and Expenses of the Parish for the last financial year.

Ordination to the Priesthood Nathan McKay

Deacon Nathan left on Friday for a little quiet time, prayerfully preparing for his Ordination to the Priesthood next Friday September 18th, at St Monica's Cathedral commencing at 7.00pm. Nathan after the normal commitments post Ordination around Gordonvale and Cairns will return to Innisfail for the Week September 21st – 25th while I am on Retreat. He will then head off to spend time with his sister and her family down south and have a short break, returning around October 15th to take up his appointment in Mother of Good Counsel Parish, Innisfail. May I suggest as a gesture of welcome and appreciation that we might have a second collection for him next Sunday? Know we are all invited to his Ordination; kindly keep him in your prayers.

Finding a voice

Young people are our country's future, but that doesn't mean they can't use their gifts and play a role in its present as well. A group of students in Melbourne is working to empower and engage their peers to be part of the national conversation in areas such as refugee policy.

"The parish is where the Church lives. Parishes are communities of faith, of action, and of hope. They are where the gospel is proclaimed and celebrated, where believers are formed and sent to renew the earth. Parishes are the home of the Christian Community; they are the heart of our Church."
