The Pastor's Pen

Interesting how breathing has a calming effect and to breathe deeply can help one to relax and be free of tension---it is a practice we do normally to exist---when we stop breathing, life is under threat. In a panic mode the natural reaction is to stop breathing, then chaos and confusion follows.

The Spirit is often described as wind, air and is from the Latin spiritus for breath.

In the world of prayer, practitioners encourage an awareness of breathing, what one does normally! regular and deep breaths assist one to focus, centre and relax.

It is enlightening to appreciate what one may consume when inhaling: air enriched with oxygen by plants, moisture from distant oceans and nitrogen just exhaled by our neighbour. A former spiritual director of mine encouraged me to appreciate inhaling was receiving goodness, while exhaling was expelling that that was not good.

Thich Nhat Hanh the Master of Mindfulness says: "Breathing in I calm myself, breathing out, I smile. Living in the present moment: this is a wonderful moment."

Holy Communion (Gluten Free Host)

We are conscious that some of our faithful are on Gluten Free diets, if that is the case provision is made for you to be able to receive the Host in Holy Communion, it is made from potato, rice, tapioca and xanthin gum. Should you require such a host to be consecrated either see the Sacristan or Father before Mass!

What Makes a Dad

God took the strength of a mountain,
The majesty of a tree,
The warmth of a summer sun,
The calm of a quiet sea,
The generous soul of nature,
The comforting arm of night,
The wisdom of the ages,
The power of the eagle's flight,
The joy of a morning in spring,
The faith of a mustard seed,
The patience of eternity,
The depth of a family need,
Then God combined these qualities,
When there was nothing more to add,
He knew His masterpiece was complete,
And so, He called it ... Dad

"Francis to marry 20 couples in St Peter's"

Pope Francis will preside over his first wedding ceremony as pontiff during a nuptial Mass in St Peter's Basilica on September 14.

The Vatican confirmed today that 20 couples from the Diocese of Rome will be married by the Pope, the Bishop of Rome.

The papal Mass celebrating the couples' marriage will come just a few weeks before the start of the extraordinary synod of bishops on the family on October 5–19. (By Carol Glatz, Catholic Herald Co UK)

Humour

A three-year-old boy went with his dad to see a litter of kittens. On returning home, he breathlessly informed his mother, "There were two boy kittens and two girl kittens." "How did you know?" his mother asked. "Daddy picked them up and looked underneath," he replied. "I think it's printed on the bottom."

The Catechism at para 167 teaches us that the Apostles' Creed is the faith of the Church professed personally by each believer principally during Baptism. On the other hand the Nicene Creed is the faith of the Church confessed by the bishops assembled in Council or more generally by the liturgical assembly of believers. Although there is the option of using either during the celebration of the Eucharist, the mind of the Church would indicate a preference for the use of the Nicene Creed on most occasions. The purpose of this proclamation is so the whole congregation may, in a full throated way, respond to the Word of God as proclaimed in the Readings and the Homily.
