“This story may be an early version of the story of the ten lepers. However the point is quite different. In this version the leper, far from not thanking Jesus, goes about the land and expresses his gratitude to all who would listen.

“The passage is made even more opaque by Mark’s literary device of the ‘Messianic Secret’ –he builds his gospel around the structure that Jesus was trying to keep who he was a secret, which doesn’t seem to be any more than a narrative form.

“Surely, however, Jesus did not want to be known as the kind of military messiah that so many people in his time wanted and expected.”

(From a homily on the Gospel by Fr Andrew Greeley)
